The Secretary of State and Mrs. Lansing entertained the President and Mrs. Wilson at dinner last evening at their residence on 18th street.

White lilies and roses formed the table decoration. To meet the President and Mrs. Wilson there were present Mr. Justice and Mrs. Mahlon Pitney, Mr. Justice McReynolds, the Secretary of the Interior and Mrs. Lane, the solicitor general and Mrs. John W. Davis, Gen. and Mrs. Crozier, the commissioner of patents and Mrs. Ewing, the counselor of the Department of State and Mrs. Frank Polk, Judge George Gray of Wilmington, Del., Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Johnson of Philadelphia, Mrs. Thomas P. Bayard, Mrs. John W. Foster and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Wallace.

The ambassadors, ministers and charge d'affaires of the republics of America represented in Washington will give a ball tonight in honor of the President and Mrs. Wilson at the Pan-American building.

Nearly fifteen hundred persons have been invited, and the invitations are strictly personal, non-transferable and the presentation of the cards of admission sent to all persons accepting the invitation will be required at the entrance.

An important notice in this connection was given out today. Those having house guests for whom individual cards have not been procured will not be allowed to bring them.

The ball will be similar in most of its features to great state functions. Mr. John Barrett, director general of the Pan-American Union, who was in charge of the tour of the delegates from the Second Pan-American Scientific Congress to various cities, was obliged to leave the party at New York because of a severe attack of grip.

He is now at Atlantic City, under the doctor's care, and will, therefore, be able to assist at the pan-American reception to the President and Mrs. Wilson tonight.

Rev. Father Cooper, assistant rector of St. Matthew's Church, will perform the marriage ceremony at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon, at the home of the bride, for Miss Mary R. Mullan, daughter of the late Capt. W. M. Mullan, and Mr. Henry H. Flather.

As the bride is still in mourning for her sister, the only witnesses will be the relatives of the contracting parties. The couple will leave later for a wedding trip, and on their return will take up their residence at 1523 18th street.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard S. Reeside were the hosts at a delightful dance given at their residence, on 19th street, last night, in celebration of Miss Jane Gregory, daughter of the Attorney General and Mrs. Gregory, and her house guest, Miss Keasbey of Austin, Tex.

All the rooms of the drawing room suite were converted into a garden, the walls and ceilings being sprayed over with southern smilax and asparagus vines. Quantities of pink sweet peas, azaleas and ferns formed the decoration of the dining room, which was also used for dancing.

The mantle were banked with ferns, sweet peas and lilies. Concealed in a bower of pampas grasses and palms on a landing half way up the stairs was an artificial moon, which when the lights were extinguished during several of the dances, cast a soft glow over the garden below.

A stringed orchestra played behind a screen of palms, and supper was served in an exquisite gown of turquoise blue tulle, trimmed with bands of opalescent embroidery with the corsage entirely of tulle and opalescents and diamond ornaments.

Miss Reeside wore white satin and tulle trimmed with tiny pink rosebuds. Miss Keasbey's gown was of pale blue satin and lace.

Miss Reeside wore an imported gown of white tulle over cloth of silver, garnished with rosebuds, with the bodice of tulle with a broad girde of blue satin.

The guests included the Attorney General and Mrs. Thomas Watt Gregory, the Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Joseph D. East, the Peruvian minister and Mme. Pezet, the solicitor of the State Department and Mrs. Cone, Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Bell, Mrs. Byrnes, Representative and Mrs. Joe Henry Eagle, Representative and Mrs. Robert L. Mrs. Lynday Van Rensselaer of New York entertained at dinner last evening in compliment to the women attending the Federation of Women's Clubs, now meeting in Washington. The ninety or more guests were entertained in the gold room at the Shoreham, the company being seated at small tables which were attractively decorated with pink flowers and pink-capped candelabra.

The marriage of Miss Helen Wickliffe Cooper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Cooper, and Mr. Joseph Brown Metcalfe, Jr., took place last evening, at 7:30 o'clock, at the residence of the bride's parents, on Wyoming avenue.

Only the members of the two families witnessed the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Dr. Earle Willey, in the bay window in the drawing room, which was converted into a bower with palms and ferns and white roses.

Mrs. Eugene Byrnes, the bride's aunt, played the wedding march.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a lovely gown of soft white satin trimmed with pearls and silver embroidered at the bottom with a train was of chiffon and tulle, and she wore a tulle veil caught with orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Frederica Rust attended her sister as matron of honor and wore a gown of peach-color taffeta, made in old-fashioned style, with a hoop skirt and the bodice finished with a fichu of point lace. She carried a bouquet of sunburst roses and forget-me-nots in a lace holder.

A reception followed for the guests already assembled at the ceremony. Mrs. Cooper assisted the newly married couple in receiving, and wore a handsome gown of black chiffon velvet.

Mr. and Mrs. Metcalfe left later for a southern trip, the latter wearing a smart suit of purple velvet trimmed with sealskin, and a velvet and fur toque to match. They will be at home after March 1, at 2328 R street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Brown Metcalfe, Jr., parents of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Roe of Sudlersville, Md., and Miss Mary Carey Harrison of Baltimore were here for the wedding.
